Logo meaning

The logo for Nostalgia Institute features a design of three leaves within a shield, embodying the institution's mission to protect, nurture, and foster the growth of education and knowledge. The shield represents strength, security, and a commitment to safeguarding the integrity of educational pursuits.

Positioned at the heart of the shield, the three leaves symbolize the interconnected elements of learning: intellectual growth, personal development, and the pursuit of excellence. Together, these elements create a harmonious depiction of the institute's dedication to cultivating a supportive and empowering environment for learners.

Color Ratio

Color Ratio

The color scheme for the Nostalgia Institute brand is designed with a clear hierarchy to ensure consistency and impact. The primary colors—green, black, and white—should dominate the design, occupying 60% of the visual space in any branding material. These colors represent the core identity of the brand, offering balance, professionalism, and clarity.

The secondary colors—red, beige, and blue—are intended to complement the primary palette, adding vibrancy and versatility while maintaining harmony. By adhering to this ratio, the brand achieves a cohesive and professional appearance across all applications.

Shape

The shapes and patterns used in Nostalgia's branding are inspired by the concepts of growth, connection, and tradition. Geometric shapes and clean lines reflect the structured approach to education, while subtle curves and organic elements symbolize adaptability and inclusiveness. The shield in the logo represents protection, strength, and a commitment to safeguarding knowledge, while the leaf element embodies growth, learning, and a harmonious relationship with nature. Patterns derived from these elements can be used as accents in backgrounds, merchandise, and promotional materials to create a cohesive and engaging brand identity.
